Dynamic Advertising and Design names local design professional to head web division.

Galloway, NJ - October, 2009 - Emily Gorman has joined the Dynamic Advertising and Design team in Galloway, New Jersey as a Web Developer and designer. Gorman will head the web department and work with casino web clients in Atlantic City, Indiana and Mississippi, as well as major retail outlets in the area.

Gorman grew up in St. Louis, Missouri. After receiving a bachelor's degree in Journalism from the University of Missouri-Columbia, she moved to South Jersey where she became a designer at The Atlantic City Weekly. She has since worked at the Courier-Post, and, most recently, the Press of Atlantic City. Gorman earned several New Jersey Press Association awards for design in 2007 and was named The Press' Editorial Employee of the Year for 2008.

"Emily will bring more energy and a fresh perspective to our web clients. We really look forward to having her on the team," said Tim Downey, Founder and CEO.

Founded in 2004, Dynamic Advertising and Design is a full service advertising agency located in Galloway, NJ specializing in web, digital signage and multimedia. DAD currently works with clients locally and nationally creating, managing and deploying interactive media.
